

St Mary's Church Saffron Walden

Oliver King – Our new Director of Music and Organist September 2010

Oliver studied at the Royal College of Music with Nicholas Danby and Margaret Philips and at the Malmo Academy of Music with Matthias Wager. Whilst a student he also held the Michael James Trust Organ scholarship to the Royal Church of St Martin in-the-Fields. He has been a teacher and performer for 10 years and has worked in two major boarding schools. He combines his current position as College Organist at Wellington College with a busy and varied career as a soloist, accompanist, and conductor. Oliver has performed throughout the UK, Holland, Sweden and the United States and has appeared on several recordings. When not doing musical things, Oliver is also a keen cyclist. He is thrilled to be starting at St. Mary's in September and can't wait to hit the ground running!
