2nd Sunday of Epiphany

Week of Christian Unity

Collect

Eternal Lord,
our beginning and our end:
bring us with the whole creation to your glory, hidden through past ages and made known in Jesus Christ our Lord.

First Reading: Isaiah 49 v 1-7

Psalm: 40 v 1-12

Second Reading: 1 Corinthians 1 v 1-9

Gospel: John 1 v 29-42

John saw Jesus coming towards him and said, "Look, the Lamb of God, who takes away the sin of the world! This is the one I meant when I said, 'A man who comes after me has surpassed me because he was before me.' I myself did not know him, but the reason I came baptising with water was that he might be revealed to Israel."

Then John gave this testimony: "I saw the Spirit come down from heaven as a dove and remain on him. I would not have known him, except that the one who sent me to baptise with water told me, 'The man on whom you see the Spirit come down and remain is he who will baptise with the Holy Spirit.' I have seen and I testify that this is the Son of God."

The next day John was there again with two of his disciples. When he saw Jesus passing by, he said, "Look, the Lamb of God!"

When the two disciples heard him say this, they followed Jesus. Turning round, Jesus saw them following and asked, "What do you want?"

They said, "Rabbi" (which means Teacher), "where are you staying?"

"Come," he replied, "and you will see."

So they went and saw where he was staying, and spent that day with him. It was about the tenth hour. Andrew, Simon Peter's brother, was one of the two who heard what John had said and who had followed Jesus. The first thing Andrew did was to find his brother Simon and tell him, "We have found the Messiah" (that is, the Christ). And he brought him to Jesus.

Jesus looked at him and said, "You are Simon son of John. You will be called Cephas" (which, when translated, is Peter).

Post Communion

God of glory,
you nourish us with your Word
who is the bread of life:
fill us with your Holy Spirit that through us the light of your glory may shine in all the world.

We ask this in the name of Jesus Christ our Lord.

NOTICES

The LIGHTING INSTALLATION contractors at St Mary's SW are now working in the chancel and sanctuary and we are also carrying out some plasterwork repairs from scaffolding at the same time. Unless we find unexpected problems the scaffolding should be removed by the end of January. Thank you for your patience as we do this work, especially to the choir and our 8am congregation. Steve Hasler

LOST PROPERTY If you have left anything at St Mary's, SW over the Christmas period, please can you check the lost property box. The contents will be disposed of after Sunday 18th January.

The CHOIR is seeking a dark red adult robe for our new assistant organist. Rather than spend out for a new one, I'm wondering if anyone knows a church where they would be willing to give us a long-term loan. Please let me know if you can help. Gill Gibson 07876018256

EXTERNAL CHURCH NOTICE BOARDS, St Mary's SW - these are being removed for a couple of weeks to enable accurate measurements to be made for the fixings of the new boards that will replace them
